

Assignment on Web design: HTML FORMs.

1. What is a form element?
2. What is an input element?
3. Use input element “text fields” to write the following,
Your First name [Enter your first name]

Your Middle name [Enter your first name]

Your Last name [Enter your Last name or Surname]
4. Use input element “radio buttons” to write the following,
 Male
 Female
5. Use input element “submit buttons” to submit the above information.
6. What are Action, Target and Method <form> attributes? Use them in the above form.
7. What are other <form> attributes? Use them in the above form.
8. What is <select> element?
9. Create a drop down list of any of 8 states in India with <select> element. Use size attribute to display all 8 states at a time. Use multiple attribute to select multiple states at a time. Use textarea element to create multiline input.
10. What is button element? Use button element to create own buttons.
11. Use fieldset and legend in question 3.
12. Use datalist to specify the 8 states in question 9.
13. Create own table of covid-19 infection from covid19india.org for the number of confirmed cases of everyday till now and check that the active cases till now is = confirmed cases – recovered cases-deceased cases with output element by HTML. If possible plot the graph of confirmed cases, recovered cases and deceased cases of everyday till now.

Note. Do the assignment within one week and report me (any one person) of your completion status of the assignment. I also upload it as a study material of web design by HTML lab.